GUILDFORD BAPTIST CHURCH

PETRARCH HELPS TO REVOLUTIONISE A NEW WORSHIP SPACE

Limestone Riven

Architects Re-Format have re-thought and revolutionised The Guildford Baptist Church. This dynamic new community and worship space has been superbly re-invented and boasts the most dramatic transformation. 'Re-imagining the entire form and appearance of the building within its context.'

Architectural Panel Solutions' engineered stone panel 'Petrarch' has been utilised to create an impressive and formidable face, featured here in limestone, riven.

Testimonial from the client

'Re-Format have a remarkable ability, among the many other talents that they possess, of recycling tired, worn out buildings. Ours is one of them and what Re-Format have come up with in terms of re-imagination of space, use and aesthetics is nothing short of miraculous.'

Rev Dr Ian Stackhouse, Senior Minister, Guildford Baptist Church
